GENERAL ASSOCIATION

If you see a student walk into a football game, basketball game, G.A. dance, or receive a copy of the Record, all without parting with any of his hard-earned "dough," you may be pretty sure he's a member of the General Association. Besides these privileges, he receives reductions on tickets to plays and dances sponsored by the school, all for a mere two dollars and fifty cents. He also has the opportunity of suggesting improvements in the school. This year the enrollment has been increased to include almost two thirds of the student body.

There are two representatives from each homeroom who attend weekly meetings, at which school business is carried out, and report back to the homerooms. This nucleus forms the governing body of the school; it is the link between students and the administration or between the school and any outside contacts.

This year, the G.A. sponsored dances after both the Record play and the Senior play. During the Fall, money was contributed toward making Red Cross Christmas boxes to send to soldiers. At about the same time, money was appropriated to put candles in the front windows of the school as Christmas decorations. For the convenience of the students, swimming and basketball schedules were printed. During the Spring, the members sold wooden tiger pins, which helped to increase school spirit. A war stamp dance was planned for February, but due to the heat situation, it could not be held. Later in the year a gift of stage props was presented to the Thespians.

Those Who Serve

CUSTODIANS

Mamaroneck High School owes a great debt of gratitude to its custodians. Few students realize the marvelous job they do in keeping us comfortable. Now, with the fuel shortage, the task of heating the school is that much more difficult. This difficulty has been surmounted successfully, however, by our able custodians, headed by Mr. Michael Tripico. Their help in performing many of the odd jobs around the school is incomparable. They always cheerfully do whatever job, no matter how small, that requires their attention. The students' sincere and grateful thanks go to the custodians.

OFFICE STAFF

Miss Maude Morgan, Miss Ann Incao and Mrs. Adrienne Civettini form the hard working, often forgotten group known as the Office Staff. The innumerable, but very important tasks performed by this staff are sometimes forgotten. The staff, nevertheless, is always cheerful and ready to help. They are always helpful in the conveyance of messages telephoned from home. They have much valuable information at their finger-tips. Many of the records connected with the school are kept straight by this staff. The school is deeply indebted to these folks for the wonderful work they do.

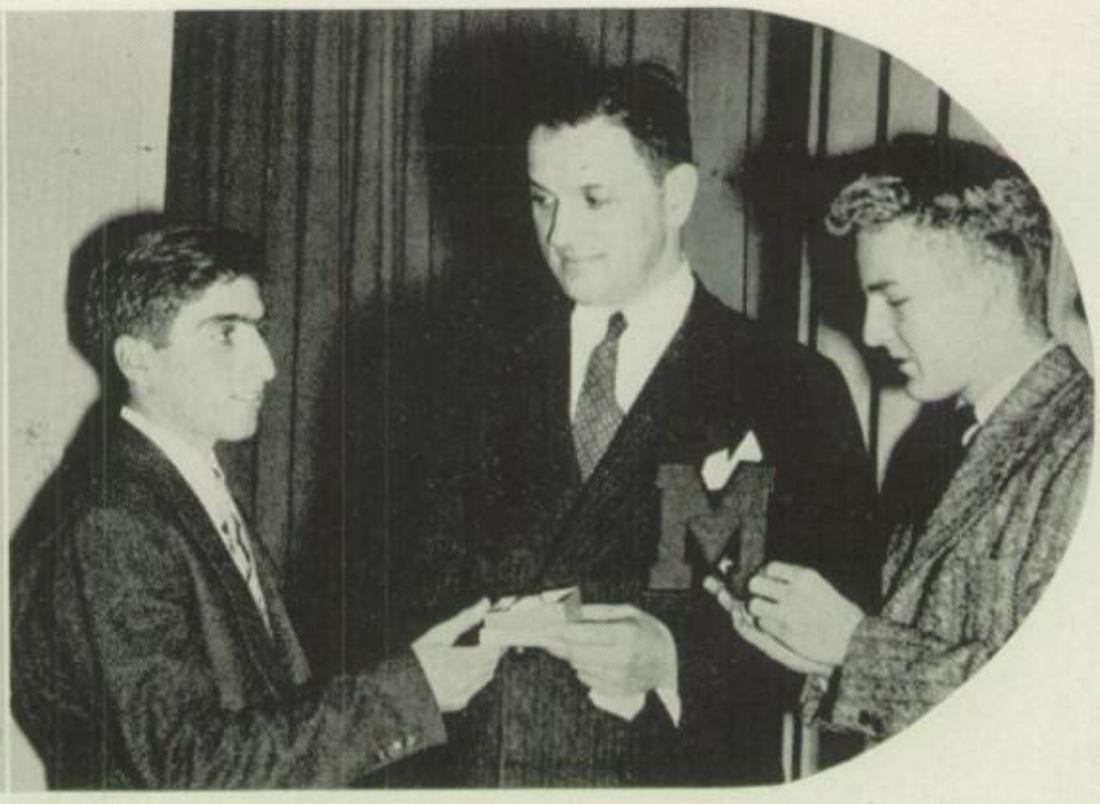
Gangbusters



MRS. JULIE M. GLEASON

Dean of Girls

It isn't often that we girls get into trouble, but when we do, Mrs. Gleason is the person to whom we go for counsel and help.

When we deserve it, she is severe with us, but always we can depend on her sympathy and kindliness to soothe our injured feelings.

MR. CHARLES WARREN

Dean of Boys

He has left our building, but Mr. Warren will not soon be forgotten by us boys who have depended on him for guidance in our curricular and extra-curricular activities.

We miss both his frown and his smile but wish him well in his new position.

Mr. Warren signs off

Life at Mamaroneck High School was like a canoe trip on a swift stream with heavy tropical growth overhanging. It was pleasant, with never a dull moment.

Of course, I ran into an occasional sunken tree trunk which upset my canoe and threw me headlong into the stream. Then it was I thought I heard voices laughing at my discomposure. But those experiences were good because I got a free bath.

I was sorry to leave. I shall always cherish those years filled with happiness and a certain personal satisfaction of the work done.

For you, students, I wish all the good things of life, trusting that you have done your part well.

Signed, CHARLES L. WARREN

The Guiding Light

MISS MAUDE MORGAN and OUR PRINCIPAL,

MR. JOSEPH C. McLAIN

Just a word from Joe

. . . . . Out of the trial and scourge of war there will emerge a new and better world order. Some of you will make direct personal contributions to winning this war and creating conditions essential to an enduring peace. It will be the duty, responsibility and privilege of all to help shape that peace so that your future may be free from fear, want and tyranny. As Mamaroneck High School students have performed and sacrificed nobly in the past, so must you contribute generously and constructively to the future. Congratulations and best wishes for success in meeting the challenge of the opportunities which are yours.

EXTRA SENIORS

The MAHISCAN is compiled for the benefit of those who are leaving the halls of their Alma Mater and wish to carry with them material recollections of their three happy years at the Hilltop.

Therefore, we wish to welcome into the yearbook all those whose late entrance into our midst accounts for their absence from the regular Senior panels.

FEBRUARY GRADUATES

February Graduates

In February of 1945, twenty-six students, forming the vanguard of their class, graduated from the halls of M.H.S. to go into other fields, in most cases cutting short their pleasant high school years to serve their country in some sort of military service.

Fred Buechling was called by the ASTRP, together with Paul Weber. The United States Navy took into its fold Sylvester DeLitto, Frank Felice, George Greer, Mills Harris, James Holmes, Roy Hoskins, George Johnson, Richard Lund, Frank McDermott, and William Perciasepe. Waiting for their selective service calls were Ralph Condro, Gordon Huppi, Norman Moore, and Joseph Quadrini.

Paul Fischer, Herbert Hartley, George Holzinger, Theodore Levy, Anthony Loiaconi, and Robert Sanstrom departed for college, while Albert Hauser joined the Marine Corps, Donald Ubriaco and Joseph Parks the Army Air Corps, and Frederick Yankocy the Merchant Marine.

Keeping Up With the World

Senior Diary

SEPTEMBER

As the leaves turn red and our tans turn yellow, the doors of our beloved Alma Mater swing wide. Some of us don't arrive until two days later.

The place is just about the same, only what has happened to the 'big study hall' and the library?

September 12—Question of the week:
What are the moaning sounds coming out of the ventilators?

September 13—Answer:
Sophomore girl lost in the heating system.

Mr. Fulcher sets the goal for the bond and stamp drive at $100,000!!

We all travel down to A. B. Davis for the first football game of the season - - - we lose, 19-0.

OCTOBER

We play Bellows on our own field. We lose.

October 14—With great skill and tremendous power we smash Albert Leonard, 7-6.

By this time the Record Play is well under way.

In the pouring rain we watch the Iona-Mamaroneck football game. We lose again.

YOU CAN'T WIN ALL THE TIME!

The Mahiscan receives the Scholastic Press award.

Seventeen of us are chosen to sing in the All County Chorus, selected from various Westchester high schools. Frankly - - - we are superb.

Once again we play football; once again we lose. This time to Roosevelt, 25-7.

October 30—
Big 25c lunches appear in the cafeteria.
Big waistlines appear all over school.
We all look just fine for Halloween.

NOVEMBER

We lose to our rivals, New Rochelle, for the first time in three years.

The Red Cross Drive is in full swing.

November 6—Tomorrow is parents' visiting day!

November 8—Parents untied from trees and allowed to continue life as formerly.

Much excitement around school. College Conference representatives arriving. We are dismissed at 2:10—to confer.

Port Chester defeats us, 14-12, which isn't so much.

Honor Society inducts twenty-eight new members. Sophs, leaning wide-eyed from the balcony, determine to make it.

November 17—Record Play, "Cuckoos on the Hearth," is a big success. One added attraction was Lulu in her hula skirt.

We lose our last game of the season to Isaac Young, 6-0. This was just not our year in football.

Mr. Warren leaves high school to become principal of Mamaroneck Avenue School.

November 22 — Hot Dog! Thanksgiving vacation!

Lost and Found full of senior rings.

DECEMBER

December 7—Pearl Harbor Memorial Day assembly. There are now twenty-one gold stars on our service flag.

Plans for recreation center posted.

Basketball is underway.

We lose our first game to Pelham, 42-30.

December 19—New members suffer a loss of dignity at the Honor Society induction.

Christmas vacation starts!

JANUARY

How COULD it go so fast???

Richard Byron, baritone, sings for us in assembly. We like Hawaiian War Chant.

Basketball game. A. B. Davis 53—Mamaroneck 37.

January 13—Grand opening of the "Casbah."

MAHISCAN staff is busy, busy, busy.

Are you going to try out for the Senior Play, "Stage Door"?

January 19—We play gin rummy, poker and Go Fish at the Honor Society Bridge.

The Thespians elect ten new members.

FEBRUARY

February 1—Twenty-six of our boys graduate in assembly. We wish them loads of luck.

The weather is simply awful.

Sumoresnow!

We are seen sporting new Tiger pins which are very, very snazzy.

Some of us have our senior pictures taken over. Some of us just grin and bear it.

MARCH

March 3—Wasn't Nancy Lou funny?

Thespians induct nine new members.

We witness the American Legion speech contest. Congratulations to Sara Nicoll, Bill Moorhead, and Evelyn Gluck.

March 28—Easter vacation—goody!

APRIL

April 9 — Vacation ends. We demand a recount!

From the commotion in the auditorium every afternoon, we judge that the cast of the Junior play is rehearsing, rehearsing, rehearsing!

We out-swim A. B. Davis, 37-29. Ha!

In tribute to the tragic death of President Roosevelt, Mr. McLain calls a special assembly.

April 20—Our concert goes over the top, breaking all past records. We Seniors are very, very proud.

The Latin Club holds its annual bridge.

MAY

There is a lot of activity on that baseball field. Where DID Pete Ahern get those purple shorts?

The Choir concert is a huge success.

JUNE

We get out at 2:10.

Willie Carter gets out at 4:00.

Gosh it's hot!

Here come the Regents! Is everybody happy?

To cram or not to cram?

To graduate or not to graduate?

To summer school or not to summer school?

June 26—Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhh.

June 27—It's all over now. Go to it Juniors. You've got a record to beat!

The National Honor Society

"Character, Scholarship, Leadership, Service" —this is the four-fold aim of the National Honor Society. The organization, in its effort to serve the school in the best possible manner, has continually encouraged these high ideals.

This year, the members have completed a full schedule of activities. Ably led by Robert Roth, President; Beverly Simson, Vice-President; Sanborn Philp, Secretary; Sue Waterman, Treasurer, and Miss Alicia Andrews, sponsor, the Society has, as one project, undertaken the task of writing congratulatory letters to those students who attained the first honor roll and placing in each home room a list of the Honor Roll students of that home room.

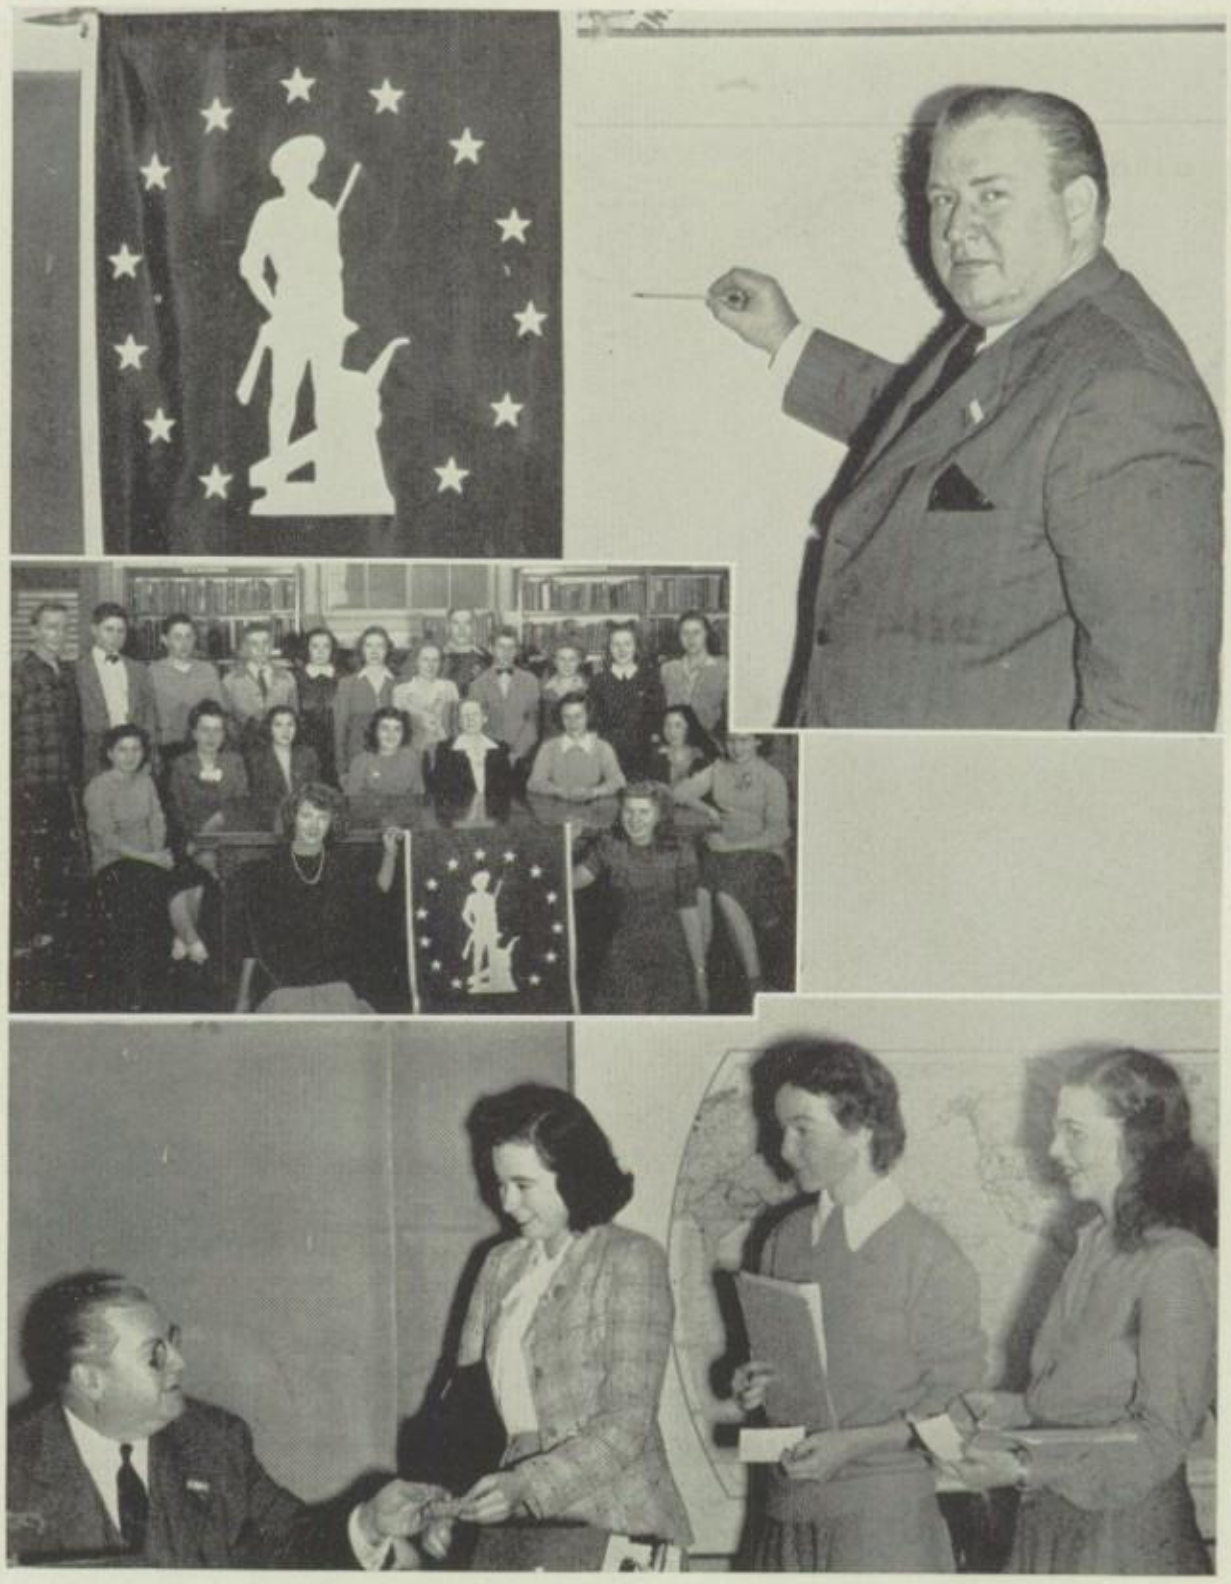
For the second year the Honor Society sponsored the publication of "G.I. Grads." This news letter about our graduates in the service has been greatly appreciated by both the student body and the alumni.

On January 19, the annual Scholarship Bridge was held. Each year, through this bridge, the Honor Society raises one hundred dollars to be awarded on graduation night to some deserving Senior.

Last Fall, in an impressive ceremony in assembly, twenty-four Seniors were inducted. At a later meeting they were duly initiated. In the Spring a select group of Juniors had a fine chance to appreciate the Seniors' sense of humor at the initiation picnic.

For being both useful and honorary, the MAHISCAN loudly applauds the National Honor Society.

Victory is our Business



Mr. William G. Fulcher

Mr. William G. Fulcher, Marilyn Kunz, Ruth Juillerat, Ruth Blechman.

During this school year of 1944-1945. M.H.S. again put on a sustained drive to sell War Stamps and bonds for the United States Government. To date, the impressive total of $29,165.34 has been reached by those students in the homerooms who have sold stamps and bonds so efficiently.

Miss Blanche Lyon was in charge of the sales on the second floor while Mr. William G. Fulcher was in charge of the first floor. For a great part of the year, due to the absence of Mr. Fulcher, Mrs. Frances Linden took charge of the sales on the first floor. She did a wonderful job in taking Mr. Fulcher's place and is to be congratulated on her fine work. The student council nominated an able chairman of the stamp committee, namely Bill Moorhead, who took charge of making the war bond announcements in assembly and did a laudable job all year round.

Every Thursday, rain or shine, a visitor to the Hilltop can see the Minute Man flag flying proudly under the Stars and Stripes on the flagpole at the front of the building. This signifies that ninety percent of the student body is "Backing the Attack" with their quarters and dimes.

Similarly, the smaller Minute Man Banner, which can be seen in one homeroom every week, is awarded to the homeroom with the highest sales total for the week.

To symbolize the ideals for which we are putting our money into these stamps and bonds, the M.H.S. service flag hangs on the wall of the auditorium for all to see. It represents the 891 boys who have entered the service from Mamaroneck High School and the 36 who have made the supreme sacrifice.

An impressive ceremony celebrating the changing of the numbers on this flag was held in the beginning of the year. The rededication, conducted by Rabbi Nathan Blechman of Mamaroneck, left few hearts untouched. Two veterans of the armed forces delivered stirring addresses to the visibly moved audience.

The art group of the Red Cross Club was ably guided by Miss Maude E. Devereux. Working in conjunction with the sewing group, Miss Devereux and her charges completed many projects. Among these were menu covers for the Navy and Valentines for soldiers. Without this section of the club, one of the most important activities of the school would not have been complete.

This year the sewing group of the Red Cross Club, ably led by Miss Sirica, carried out its duties most creditably. In addition to making such useful articles as bed-jackets, lap robes and menu covers, the club sponsored the annual Roll Call, resulting in 100% participation by the students. In these times, the club is proving that it deserves the esteem of the student body.

The pre-flight class is an interesting as well as a useful course. The students work on one hundred horsepower and four hundred-fifty horsepower engines as well as follow textbooks and take the airplane in the shop apart. The work is profitable because the class satisfies the requirements for Regents as well as those of the air forces.

Big Sister

The Girls' Council strives to help those in need. Every year one representative is elected from each homeroom to serve on the council. Since the aim of the council is to give aid, it is only natural that the girls help our wounded soldiers. At an early fall meeting the girls decided to make scrapbooks and tray cloths.

The materials for the scrapbooks were donated to the Girls' Council by the Parent-Teachers' Association. Girls in the organization offered materials for the tray cloths. A workroom was arranged for the Council in a room adjoining the library and the girls were permitted to use this room during their free periods.

It was the purpose of the Girls' Council before the war to promote social activity at M.H.S. Therefore, every fall the Council sponsors a welcoming party for the sophomores. This has become an annual activity because it provides an opportunity for the new girls to meet the Juniors and Seniors.

Under the able guidance of Mrs. Gleason the Council's officers this year were Betty Ann Schmitt, President; Patricia Keane, Vice-President; Joanne Devlin, Secretary; and Carol Ernst, Treasurer. This year the Council has tried to help in aiding the war effort. The small share they did made the girls feel useful.

Words at War

The Library Club has gained more and more importance each year since it was founded in 1940. Under Miss Meredith's able direction, the club members learn library techniques and become acquainted with the running of a library.

Each member performs certain duties through which he helps the library to function smoothly. This year, there were approximately twenty Library Club members who worked in the library at least one free period each week. Some students have been in the club for as many as three years. The technical phases of library work are tackled during the weekly meetings, but sometimes a discussion of books is carried on, instead.

This year, the club has taken on several new tasks. Many different displays have been set up and the Red Cross Club has received help from the Library Club. One entirely new feature has been started. Clippings from the Mamaroneck Daily Times are kept in a scrapbook under four main headings: former Mamaroneck High School students in the Armed Services; various activities pertaining to the school; and sports events, and social news.

The club's purpose is not only to help Miss Meredith facilitate the running of the library, but also to gain valuable knowledge for personal use.

Report from Abroad

The German Club resumed as an activity on the Hilltop in the Spring of 1944, with Mrs. Allen as sponsor. A panel of officers for this school year was drawn up last Fall. They are: President, Herbert Hartley; Vice-President, Sven Valeur-Jensen; Secretary, Sandy Philp; and Treasurer, Marie Holz. Meetings are held during Activity Period on Wednesday, when only German is supposed to be spoken in Room 216-A. The programs are designed for fun, but also are helpful in German class work.

A gala Christmas party was the highlight for the German sages this year. Second and third year classes were invited. Everyone took part in a game of "Truth or Consequences," and feasted on refreshments.

The Listening Post

This year's members of the Engineers' Club, under the advice and supervision of Mr. Albert Wootten, had an interesting program. With the idea of applying their engineering knowledge to various activities of the Armed Forces, the Club witnessed motion pictures secured from engineering companies, and heard speeches by various members on some pre-selected subject. A meeting was held every week.

There were twenty-five active members of the Engineers, the officers of which were: Sanborn Philp, President; Paul Weber, Vice-President; David Butler, Secretary; and Gino Del Guercio, Treasurer. Because of transportation difficulties, the club was unable to make any inspection trips or to have guest speakers. However, they did have a very enjoyable and successful year.

Stop or Go

The Traffic Squad is one of the best known organizations of Mamaroneck High School. Every day our "police force" is on duty keeping order in the halls and regulating the "traffic" during those six three-minute periods.

It is an honor and privilege to belong to the Squad. Our principal and the faculty adviser meet with the selected chief of the Squad and choose about eighteen boys from the Senior class who have shown leadership in the school. These boys are picked also for good character and ability to carry responsibility. The boys are partial to the Squad because they not only recognize the honor but also love the right of striding out of class a few minutes early.

This group is an important part of Mamaroneck High. Its main duty is to facilitate the passing of the classes in the halls. Its members are posted at several positions around the school to help the students pass with the least amount of trouble and confusion. The Squad also assists in the cafeteria by making sure that no one slyly slips in front of others in the line.

This year Bob Roth has served as chief of the Squad. Under the guidance of the faculty adviser, Mr. Kemmerer, Bob has helped maintain the same high degree of service that the Squad has rendered in former years.

Although there have been only a few extra duties this year, the squad is always on hand to assist the principal and faculty in such forms of student control as it may be able to offer. The members of this group are quick and willing to respond to any need of the school.

MAHISCAN STAFF

Since the 1945 edition of the MAHISCAN is now in the hands of the students, the staff may again begin to breathe. As in previous years, this MAHISCAN consists mainly of hard work and worry on the part of the staff, but, also as in preceding years, the members of both divisions, editorial and business, have made every effort to insure the success of the book.

Work on the yearbook was started early in the fall under the direction of Mr. Oscar S. Keebler. The staff was organized and the pencils began to fly.

At this point, we would like to take the opportunity to thank Miss Beatrice Riordan for scheduling the photography. Also, Mr. Herbert Roth, Sr. and Mr. Kenneth Fish for the beautiful snapshots which they took around the school and on the field.

This year, the General Association voted to open the small storage room on C corridor as a room in which the various organizations of the school might meet. The MAHISCAN promptly took advantage of this action by not only moving some of its meetings there, but also its files. A "morgue" of old pictures and plates was started by the staff and old copies of the yearbook were stacked in rows along the shelves. The MAHISCAN's typewriter was set up and the staff went to work.

First of all, the senior pictures had to be taken and then the staff had to plan the dummy. As time wore on, the work became harder until, in the spring of the year, the little room fairly buzzed with activity. Last minute items were hurried to the printer while the last of the pictures went to the engraver. The popularity poll was taken and the last bit of work finally passed through the hands of the combined staffs. All there was left to do was wait—and pray that shortage of labor did not keep the book from getting to the students on time.

Speaking of shortages, the staff had to put up with a great many this year. Aside from the above mentioned shortage of labor, there were shortages of paper and film, difficulties in getting around to solicit advertising and government restrictions on the size of the book—not to mention many more arising from wartime conditions. All these, together, made a tough job for the workers to complete, but the book was finished and sent to the printer with a minimum of panic among the members of the staff.

This year, we are happy to announce, the business staff has done itself proud by getting subscriptions for more than seven hundred books. This is a new high in circulation and the members of the staff wish to thank the subscribers for making this record possible. The advertising staff is also to be commended for its fine work in soliciting advertising. This has helped pay for the book.

We hope that our combined efforts have been enough to make the 1945 issue of the MAHISCAN as good as, if not better than the ones preceding. We wish to extend our sincerest best wishes to next year's staff in their efforts to turn out the 1946 edition of the MAHISCAN.

Monday. Blue Monday. But what takes the blue out of Monday? Why, the Record, of course.

Everyone enjoys the Record, but few realize the work that goes into putting out an issue. First, the news is gathered by the able staff of thirty-one. Assignments are handed in Wednesday at three o'clock or Thursday morning. On Thursday afternoon the editorial board meets in Miss Francis' room. Ah, those Thursday afternoon meetings. To an outsider the whole thing looks like Bedlam, pure and simple. But Iris Litt, the editor-in-chief, will tell you (if you ask her) that everyone is very busy and is accomplishing his or her job efficiently. Appearances must be deceiving. Someone is climbing in the window; someone else has just finished two hotdogs and is starting on a third; someone else is sitting on the floor in a corner biting his fingernails. Finally, you give up and go home. Saturday there is apt to be another gathering at The Larchmont Print on Addison Street. There are always numerous last-minute details to be attended to. The climax comes Monday morning. The Records are distributed to the school and at last you realize why this paper won first prize last year in a nation-wide contest sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The Record is also a member of the Quill and Scroll Society and is a charter member of the National Scholastic Press Association.

This year Miss Francis has been of invaluable aid as faculty adviser of the editorial staff. Miss Wheaton has done the same for the business staff. Margaret Reimer has been Iris' helper as assistant news editor. Responsible for organizing and arranging the paper were Bill Chesley and his assistant, Garvin Aulepp. Hanno Fuchs wrote interesting accounts, which even the girls read, of the football and basketball games. The co-feature editors were Pat Bowen and Carol Caffall. Those laughs surely were appreciated on a dreary Monday morning. Marie Martino as headline editor and Alice Leddy as copy editor were indispensable. Art editor Dirk Content furnished a page of cartoons every week. Of course the paper could not have been published without those three financial wizards, business manager Larry Freedman, advertising manager Kay Gundy and subscription manager Gino Del Guercio. The able news editor was Peter Bucklin, while the circulation was supervised by Betty Fanning. The exchange editor for this year was Nancy Ostrom and the secretary-treasurer, Fidalma Ferraro. Helene Marks, Mary Frankel and Blanche Schwartzreich were extremely efficient as typists.

QUILL and SCROLL SOCIETY

Every school has a society for the journalists and literary geniuses of the student body. Mamaroneck High School is very proud of the Quill and Scroll, which has, in its untiring effort to find future essayists, short story writers, and poets, given us initiative for better writing.

The national requirements for entrance into the Quill and Scroll are not easy. A candidate has to be in the upper third of his class, be recommended by a faculty adviser in his particular phase of journalism, and be voted into membership by the present members of the club.

The annual literary magazine of the Quill and Scroll, "The Orange and Black Leaves," was again published. This magazine contains the prize essays, poems, and short stories chosen from the student body. The task of publishing this traditional booklet is a difficult one because its publication depends entirely upon subscriptions; no advertisements are used. In spite of all obstacles and the difficult task of judging the excellent work handed in, the 1945 "Orange and Black Leaves" lives up to the enviable reputation established by its predecessors.

Under the guidance of Miss Francis and the capable work of the officers: President, Hanno Fuchs; Vice-President, Larry Freedman; Secretary-Treasurer, Marie Martino, the Quill and Scroll had its usually successful year.

In the Fall, the old members, Bill Chesley, Iris Litt, Betty Fanning, Caryl Bennett, and the officers, held their annual induction of the new members, Alice Leddy, Kay Gundy, Diane Lipp, Dirk Content, Carol Caffall, Mary Ann Bowen, and Peter Bucklin. The members well deserve congratulations for their literary achievements.

School spirit attained a new high with the sale of the M.H.S. banners, stickers, tags, and "M" pins. "Beat New Rochelle" tags were very much in evidence at games and in the school, as the "Scrollers" did a wonderful job of selling.

As usual the members entered the national writing contests. This provided opportunity to develop competitive spirit among the already recognized high school writers. May we congratulate them on a very successful year.

RECORD PLAY

The rafters of our auditorium loudly echoed with laughter the night of the Record play, "Cuckoos on the Hearth." The audience, including the elite in the peanut gallery, was so attentive that even the frantic shouts of the hard-working stage crew could be heard. When the curtains parted for the first act, they disclosed a unique early American design motif. Miss Rentchler and Fred Schmidt worked many extra hours to achieve this elaborate setting of which the audience approved heartily. To a packed house the play cast acted with great poise and stage presence. However, this perfection was the result of many Sunday afternoon rehearsals in a cold auditorium with only hot dogs from Walter's to warm the actors.

Diane Swan, as the crazy cousin, thrilled the audience when she went sleepwalking across the stage in red pajamas topped by a hula skirt. Frank Buxton, a phoney medicine show doctor, kept the audience convulsed with his mugging.

The other members of the cast were Sven Valeur-Jensen, the inventor husband; Robert Nichol, the sophisticated author; Sanborn Philp, the fake minister; Nancy Kalloch, the doctor from the insane asylum; John Sullivan, the deputy sheriff; Miss Wanda Mitchell, the telephone repairman's wife; Vincent Ridley, the state trooper; David Maynard, the professor, and Miss Maud Devereux, the narrator.

The sale of tickets was record-breaking and, if you will please excuse the pun, Record making. "Orchids" to Miss Marjorie Wheaton for her marvelous direction of the play.

SENIOR PLAY

The 1945 Senior Play was directed and presented successfully.

Weeks of scurried rehearsals, dominated by good-natured Mr. Hanna ensued before the play was ready to be put on.

"Stage Door" consisted of a cast of thirty. The leading characters were portrayed with excellent performances. These were played by Natalie Hugh as Terry Randall; Jack McKernan as David Kingsley; Joy Antoville portrayed Jean Maitland, and Fred Yankocy, Keith Burgess. The crack-making fellow actress was excellently played by Nancy Lou Goehring. Other members of the cast included Nancy Kalloch as Olga Brandt; Mary Alice Van Schoonhoven, Mattie; Barbara Angell, Bobby Melrose; Anne Dobler, Big Mary; Eleanor Blanc, Little Mary; Nadine Nichols, Bernice Niemeyer; Grace Jordis, Madeline Vauclain; Iris Litt, Ann Braddock; Leonora Conlon, Kaye Hamilton; Kirsten Arup, Linda Shaw; Mary Jane Buxton, Louise Mitchell; Larelda Land, Susan Paige; Phyllis Frisbie, Pat Devine; Marilou Hellwig, Kendall Adams; Betty Ann Schmitt, Mrs. Orcott; Murray Stow, Frank; Jerry Jackson, Sam Hastings; Dirk Content, Jimmy Devereaux; Bill Dabney, Fred Powell; Vincent Ridley, Lou Milhauser; Bill Chesley, Dr. Randall; Ronald Pelletier, Larry Westcott; Garvin Aulepp, Billy; and Sven Valeur-Jensen, Adolph Gretzl. A grand party stimullated the cast which put the play over with a bang.

The capacity crowd resulted from ceaseless efforts of the advertising and business staffs, headed by Bill Moorhead and Mr. O. Stanley Keebler. Congratulations go to Miss Marjorie Wheaton, make-up; Ted Weeks, manager; Ralph Lagani, Garvin Aulepp, Miss Frances Rentchler, stage; Mildred Baughman, Martha Wallingford, properties; Miss Dorothy Bacheller, Miss Maud Devereux, wardrobe; Stella Zeh, student director; and Sandy Philp, company manager. Our thanks also to James Parker for two beautiful oil paintings.

One Man's Family

The A Cappella Choir is at the top of the list of many good musical organizations in our school, and its popular leader, Mr. F. Colwell Conklin is noted for his patience, geniality and sense of humor.

With the help of Betty Ann Schmitt, Choirmistress; Jack McKernan, Assistant Choirmaster; Sue Waterman, Clerk, and Marvin Mitchell, Librarian, the choir has once again enjoyed a very successful season.

C. Conklin's College of Musical Knowledge

Under the direction of F. Colwell Conklin, and with the aid of its President, Jack McKernan; Vice-President, Sue Waterman; Secretary, Betty Ann Schmitt, and Librarian, Al Dodenhoff, the Mixed Glee Club climaxed an extremely successful season with the annual concert on the twentieth of April.

The enthusiasm shown by the members of the group as well as the spirited renditions of the selections, helped to make this year a highly satisfactory and profitable one.

Hour of Charm

Mamaroneck High School can be proud of its splendid Girls' Glee Club. Under Miss Evelyn Wells' direction, the club presented an especially fine Christmas program as well as an excellent Spring Concert. Joan Speyer was President; Betsey Kelley, Secretary; Joann Golden and Jean Long, Librarians; Alois Acowitz and Virginia Scott, Accompanists.

The Christmas program was given by the A Cappella Choir and Girls' Glee Club jointly. Adrienne Cramer, Grace Jordis, Barbara Angell, William Mather, Richard Bowers and Marvin Mitchell were the soloists. To all of the participants and a grand directress, Miss Mitchell—our thanks.

Another interesting musical group is the Voice Culture Club, made up of almost thirty girls. This group has always been a welcome feature on our stage.

Some people just cannot help singing. Well, neither can the members of the Male Ensemble. Under the inspiring direction of Mr. Conklin these songsters practice every Tuesday afternoon for their own enjoyment. The members of the Ensemble elected Larry Freedman as their leader.

The Ensemble has been singing various types of songs this year. In their January program they sang "The Song of the Jolly Roger," a swashbuckling pirate song. Also, in this program the audience was entertained by "So Long, Mary." The songsters amused themselves and their audiences with "Johnny Schmocker" and "A Little Close Harmony." The Spring Concert was enlivened by selections of the Ensemble.

The Male Ensemble is a good deal larger this year than it has been in the past. The enthusiasm of its members has made it a marvelous success.

This year, in the annual concert of the musical organizations, the Girls' Ensemble was one of the high spots of the program. Dressed in Norwegian costumes, complete with gayly colored blouses, skirts, bodices and aprons, the group rendered selections from the play, "Song of Norway." The girls not only displayed their vocal talents, but also proved to their audience that they were graceful students of the dance.

The first selection was "Three Loves" which was followed by "Strange Music," including a short dance. After that came "I Love You," which the girls dedicated to the retiring President of the Board of Education, Mr. Philip O. Moynahan. This was followed by "Freddie and His Fiddle" which featured Alois Acowitz and his violin. The group concluded with another dance.

The Ensemble was under the direction of F. Colwell Conklin and the accompanist was Virginia Scott. All in all, it was a big success.

THE BAND

AND

Great Moments in Music

Many a Saturday afternoon in the early Fall, the M.H.S. band can be heard accompanying the spirited onlookers in the Alma Mater. Clad in their dapper outfits of the traditional orange and black, they march proudly down the field with an impressive drum major, Lawrence Freedman, in the lead, and six snappy twirlers to add a feminine touch.

Again in April, the band demonstrates its ability, under the competent leadership of Mr. Harland Pinney, at the annual concert. The combined efforts of the seventy members give an excellent example of superb leadership and cooperation.

Arthur Chadbourne holds the position of Manager; David Wesson, Secretary; Elizabeth Farr, Treasurer; and Alfred Dodenhoff, Librarian.

Once again, as in previous years, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors file into assembly each Thursday morning to the stirring strains of a march played by an orchestra worthy of our praise.

Under the guidance of our very capable music directors, Mr. Colwell Conklin and Mr. Harland Pinney, the thirty-three members of the orchestra prove their talent at the annual concert of the musical organizations of M.H.S.

With William Roos as President; Collette Vier, Secretary; and Al Dodenhoff, Librarian, the orchestra offers an excellent opportunity for these talented members of our school to become proficient in their respective fields of musical endeavor.

Behind the Curtain

The Mamaroneck High School's National Honor Society of Dramatics, Troupe 534, is a very popular organization. As in past years, the troupe planned a very active and successful year under the direction of its able President, Robert Roth; Vice-President, Thomas Wright; faculty adviser, Miss Wanda B. Mitchell.

To become a member of this organization, one must have satisfactory scholarship, play one major role in a full length production or two major roles in one-act plays, take a minor role in two or three full length dramas or three or four minor roles in one-act plays. To be admitted on backstage work, one must be efficient as a student director, stage manager, electrician, stage designer, costume manager, make-up chairman, member of the make-up or costume committees, business manager or a member or a chairman of any other committee needed for the play.

Although the Thespians are a comparatively new group, they hope soon to rank high among the other clubs.

Lend Me Your Ears

On Thursday morning, March 15, 1945, the cream of the crop of Mamaroneck High School's orators competed in assembly for the Annual American Legion Oratory award, presented for competition by Post 347, the American Legion, Larchmont, N. Y.

Seven student speakers participated in the program, and their entries were judged by members of the faculty. After an entertaining hour of interesting speeches, the decisions were made and announced the following week.

Sara Nicoll's delivery of "Maybe Tomorrow" was awarded first place. This was followed by Bill Moorhead's address on "Youth—Their Responsibility." Third honors went to Evelyn Gluck's "Harmony of Nations."

Other speeches delivered before the assembly were "Black Markets" by Sally Rappaport; "The Emblem Nobody Knows," by Crescentia McIntyre; "Conscientious Objection" by Grace McKay, and Marie Holz's "I Become an American Citizen."

Miss Laura M. Meredith of Mamaroneck High Faculty aided the contestants by training them previous to the final performance, and the competition was sponsored by Mr. Harold Dean Cater, also an M.H.S. teacher.

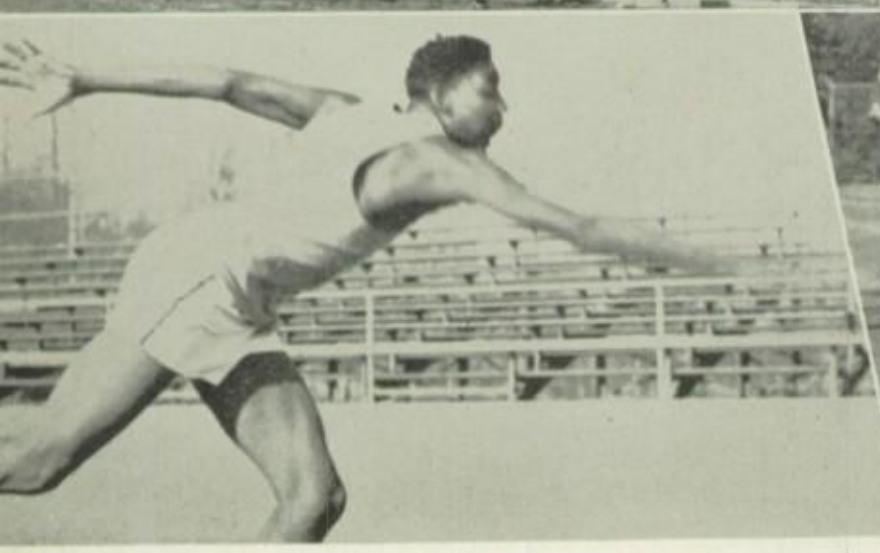
ATHLETICS



1944 TRACK

Last Spring's track and field aggregation had a very successful season under the able coaching of Mr. Edward Puritz, as they climaxed a record of four wins and one defeat with a close third place in the annual county meet, succumbing only to New Rochelle and White Plains.

In an early practice meet, held several days before the season's opening, the Tigers bowed to the Garnet squad from Greenwich, Conn., and in this contest gained valuable experience for the regular season.

Led by Dick Greenebaum, Pete Sutherland, Jim Burch, and Jim Russo, the Bengals then began the year's official activities by downing New Rochelle's county champs by 50-36, and went on the next week to crush Isaac E. Young by 64.5-21.5. In a non-league engagement, the Maroon and White of Rye High School were the victims of a 66.3-32.7 trouncing at the hands of our rampant cindermen.

In a triangular meet, Coach Puritz's boys suffered their lone defeat as they were nosed out by Yonkers Central High School, although they thoroughly humbled the A. B. Davis entrants. To close the season, the Hilltoppers downed White Plains and Davis in a tight triangular meet.

Although they had previously defeated both teams, New Rochelle took an easy first place in the county competition, while White Plains' Tigers nosed out their Mamaroneck namesakes by a half point.

The 1944 cross-country season marked one of the most successful campaigns in recent years. Under the very able eye of Mr. Edward F. Puritz, the Hill-and-Dalers took four out of five regular meets and placed second in the county championship race.

In the season's opener, the Bengals trimmed Greenwich 19-36, and then downed Albert Leonard before they finally went down to their first defeat, at the hands of the Gorton county champs. The next two meets were again easy victories, as the Hilltoppers downed New Rochelle by 17-38, and then trounced both A. B. Davis and Isaac Young in a triangular event.

By taking a close second place in the county meet, the Bengals climaxed one of their best seasons on record.

The 1944 results made the outlook for 1945 seem encouraging, since of the Bengals' seven or eight outstanding runners, there was only one Senior.

THE SEASON

The Mamaroneck High School football team, despite an apparently poor won-and-lost record, prospered under the able tutelage of their new coach, Mr. George W. Mooney, and line coach Mr. Oscar Keebler. The Bengals managed to eke out a single win in the season's eight contests.

In the Fall's opener, the Hilltoppers bowed to a much stronger A.B. Davis eleven by 19-0. Mr. Mooney juggled his lineup to discover the most powerful combine for the remainder of the season.

Against Bellows High School, the Orangemen showed vast improvement as they were nosed cut by a 6-0 score. The contest was fought evenly throughout, and it was only the breaks that won the game for Mamaroneck's crosstown rivals.

Although not playing their top game of the year, the Orange and Black gained their lone victory of the season the next weekend by trouncing a highly favored Albert Leonard eleven by 7-6. The winning margin was provided by Rocky Stingone and Charlie Rigano's conversion.

Succumbing to a first half attack, the Tigers lost to Iona Prep by 31-13. Both the Orange touchdowns and the extra point were racked up by Dick Doyne, a sophomore back, in the last quarter.

After their gallant fight against Iona, the Mooneymen suffered a let-down the next Saturday as they bowed to Roosevelt by 25-7.

The traditional battle with New Rochelle was fought on the Purple and White's home gridiron, and the Tigers' streak of two straight victories over them was ended as they lost a heartbreaker by 12-7. "Footsie" Gironda's third period score put the Orange into the lead until the Purple tallied with only a few minutes to go.

A highly favored Port Chester eleven came to town the next Saturday and was hard pressed by the revitalized Tigers to rack up a 14-12 verdict on a disputed official decision.

The season's final encounter found the Hilltoppers below the standard of their last two battles as they were upset, 6-0, by a weak Isaac Young eleven.

THE SEASON

Mamaroneck High School's swimmers are truly an organization we can be proud of, since they represent their Alma Mater this year as county swimming champions. Under the able leadership of Coach Robert C. Hanna and co-captains Bob Roth and Harry Brown, the mermen regained the county title captured in 1943, and finished the regular season with an impressive record of six wins and two defeats.

Opening the season with a 36-30 defeat at the hands of a veteran Greenwich squad, the team showed promising material for the coming season. These promises showed signs of fulfillment the next week as the natators routed Nyack by 60-6, and then dropped a heated 34-32 decision to a heavily favored Peekskill Military Academy team.

Then followed five consecutive victories, which were climaxed with the win in the final county competition.

The final event of the season was the annual county meet, which the Hilltoppers annexed by a 39-34-25 count over New Rochelle and Davis.

INTRA-MURAL CHAMPS

BASKETBALL INTRA-MURALS

During the winter athletics season, the various home rooms of M.H.S. competed in a rip-roaring intramural basketball league, under the very able supervision of Coach Edward F. Puritz.

The "Lulus," representing home room 200 B, were the final winners of the competition, emerging from the season's play with an undefeated slate.

It has often been slated that the axiom "Practice makes perfect" applies especially well to the field of sports, hence this revived idea of intramural activity in major sports bodes well for the future M.H.S. Varsity teams.

A great number of boys participated in last winter's tourney, making the home room sports program a success for the first time.

Mr. Edward Puritz, Alfred Love, Carl Huber, Ted Herlyn, Jack Kiely, Arthur Hoag, Mr. Robert C. Hanna.

Coach Puritz deserves hearty congratulations and encouragement from all those connected with the sports world of Mamaroneck High, and also those who confine themselves to spectator interest.

THE VARSITY SEASON

Although not showing an impressive won and lost record, Mamaroneck's 1945 basketeers showed great fighting spirit and promise for coming seasons. Under the tutelage of Coach George W. Mooney, the courtmen finished the season with a record of four wins against fourteen defeats. Their W.I.A.A. league record was three and twelve.

Led by towering Willie Carter, who was far and away the team's leading scorer, the Hilltop five battled gallantly against taller and more experienced teams almost every game. The quintet, made up of Carter, Bill Mather, Lee Caddell, Clarence Lord, and Frank Gironda, went on a prolonged winning streak only once, and that was when they trimmed, in rapid succession, Albert Leonard, Isaac E. Young, and Port Chester, all league opponents, at mid-season.

Before that outburst, the Bengals' only victory had been over a green Brunswick Prep School quintet. Until mid-term, the team's sparkplug was diminutive Tony Loiaconi, who was the leading scorer on last year's team.

However, it is quite a blow to next year's team that not a single varsity man, nor the two most experienced substitutes, namely Charlie Rigano and Gene Talgo, will be back for another fling at representing their Alma Mater on the basketball court. In spite of this handicap, let's wish the best of luck to next year's courtmen, who will have to rely on inexperienced players for their season's work.

M.G.A.A.

Last Fall, the Riding Club spent many enjoyable afternoons guided by Miss Elvira Ehnbom.

Hockey teams were seen on Manchester Field last Fall. The team captains were: Juniors, Grace McKay and Milly Roth; Sophomore, Ethel Cowham. The Junior Blues, headed by Milly Roth, were victorious, winning all of their games.

The swimming team had a good turnout and the girls were refreshed often at the "Y" pool.

Members of the M.G.A.A. Executive Board, chosen for their athletic abilities and interests, worked with Miss Nancy Craig. Seniors serving on the Board were: Mary Marcelli, Eleanor Gerlach, Pat Bowen, and Doris Hayden.

RIDING CLUB

Gidyup, gidyup—whoa! Yes, the 1944-1945 season of the Girls' Riding Club got off to a galloping start in the early months of the year under the direction of Miss Ehnbom. The riders were divided into two groups because of the great number of girls who wanted to participate. These two groups were classified as beginners and advanced riders. The beginners' group rode on Thursday afternoons while the advanced members began hitting the saddle at about four o'clock on Tuesdays. A station wagon was sent from the Hutchinson Farms Riding Stable to transport these modern "Lone Rangers" from the school.

The beginners were taught the fundamentals of riding, and the art of sticking to one's horse. The advanced group took longer rides and also faster ones.

Yes, the rides this year were nice, and the rides next year will also be excellent, we trust. These two groups of girls and their adviser will never forget the pleasant rides they have had during this season. Next year, there will be new groups, but the same spirit will remain in the hearts of all who think of "a cloud of dust and the speed of light." The spirit will remain forever in the hearts of Mamaroneck High's equestriennes.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

Although very little time has been given to hockey after school, the teams this year were full of spirit and enthusiasm. In a game like hockey, it is a great temptation to play everyone else's position in place of one's own, but that only adds to the fun and enjoyment.

Hockey was started in the latter part of September and the first turn-outs seemed very satisfactory. Over forty girls signed up for the different teams and competition was high. The Juniors made the best showing by having enough players to form two teams. The Sophomores were close at their heels while the slower starting Senior team finally appeared, completely ready for the games.

The Sophomore team was captained by Ethel Cowham, the Junior Reds by Grace McKay, and the Junior Blues by Milly Roth.

Many fast moving games resulted. The mainstays of the Junior Red team, Virginia Warren and Phyllis Accavetti aided in speeding up the contests and giving the other teams severe threats in the playing of the games.

The final results of the season were as follows:

	Won	Lost
Sophomores	2	2
Junior Reds	2	2
Junior Blues	3	0
Seniors	0	3

Modern Maids

Have you ever been fascinated by the stories of William Tell and Robin Hood?

These modern Robin Hoods are not quite so proficient with the bow and arrow as their famous namesake, but they do split a mean target with their shafts. There were sixteen girls out for this ancient sport and they all enjoyed themselves very much. They learned how to draw a bow and take aim, and most of them are pretty good. Cupid had better take a bit of care or he will be outclassed by the modern Dianas.

The club met about six times this year and they were taught, by Miss Craig, pointers on how to score as well as the names of the different parts of the bow. The targets were set up on the athletic field but happily the football team came through unscratched.

The club has not yet used the Junior Columbia Raurds, but plans to do so in the Spring. The whole affair is very pleasing to the girls who look forward to another interesting season next year.

The Mamaroneck High School Mermaids Association, more commonly known as the girls' swimming team, convened every Tuesday within the confines of the New Rochelle Y.M. C.A. in order that some high class swimming could be done. The time was divided into three periods, beginners, intermediates and advanced so that each type of swimmer got an equal chance to improve. These periods were devoted mostly to practice of skills, and since there were no outside meets, the girls have had to hold intramural ones. The practices helped in getting the girls into condition for these meets as well as conditioning them for anything else.

The meets were both speed and form events, the speed ones showing plenty of what it takes to make good swimmers while the races of form speak for themselves.

There was a course in Red Cross Junior Life-Saving given every Saturday morning and the girls also took that in their stride. Ann Coss, Dawsie Pierce, Ann Woodbridge and Emily Wright passed this test and are now qualified life-savers.

This year, the femmes fatales of Mamaroneck High School have gone out for basketball wholeheartedly. Ten teams were organized in the beginning of the season, and by the end of the tourney, the teams had shown almost one hundred percent improvement. The girls played on any day that the gym was free and showed true fighting spirit.

Many teams grew up out of practices. The teams chose their own captains and names. Thus the teams of Basketeers, Gremlins, Cossacks, Flying Feet, Termites, P3M4SE2, Sharpshooters, Luckys and Sparrell's Speedsters.

As the teams went into the play-offs, the Termites were in the lead, followed by the Basketeers, P3M4SE2, Flying Feet, Cossacks and the Sharpshooters. The Termites seemed, at that point, the most likely candidates for the championship, having won six games and lost none.

However, the hands of fate were not destined to aid the mighty Termites, and, as a result of the elimination tournament, the coveted title fell to the Flying Feet. The tournament was an excellent one from start to finish, and the teams showed a great spirit and a will to win that was never failing.

THE M CLUB

One of the most coveted things in the career of a high school boy is the letter he dreams about. The members of the so-called "M" Club are boys whose dreams of a varsity letter have come true. These able bodied fellows have worked long and hard at the different sports in which they acquired their letters.

It is a common misconception that fellows who are active in sports are generally all brawn and no brains. Here, before a boy is allowed to be on a team, he must satisfy certain scholastic requirements.

The varsity letters are awarded in football, cross-country, basketball, swimming, track, and baseball. The wearers of these letters are the symbols of enthusiasm, skill, and faithfulness in each of the sports. They guide and encourage the newcomers to follow in their footsteps. Also, they give the team a feeling of confidence.

As the system of awarding letters stands now, a boy receives a new letter each time he earns it. There may be some changes made, however, so that the boy who earns a letter more than once will receive special recognition. This may be done by wearing an additional bar on the original letter or obtaining an emblem significant of the sport in which it it earned.

It is the duty of the student body to support the various athletic activities wholeheartedly. There is nothing like a cheering crowd to spur our boys on down the field to victory. When we do not give them our full confidence and enthusiastic backing, we are in the wrong. Let us not fail our job, and we may be sure that the boys will not let us down.

Of course, with the ceaseless efforts of the coaches, our teams have gained unity, spirit, and skill. Due to their many unselfish and extra hours of coaching, they have made the Mamaroneck teams ones of which we can be truly proud. Coaches Mooney, Keebler, Storey, Hanna, Ludwig, and Puritz are worthy of our highest admiration and praise for their splendid work in organizing and instructing our boys. They are helping to shape the young men of tomorrow along the lines of fair play and good sportsmanship. This is an important factor in anyone's life and should not be lightly cast aside now or ever.

So, as this school year goes rolling out, and the new year approaches, let us give three cheers for our boys!

Dedication

The dedication of this page is one of our most solemn tasks. Not only is it devoted to our alumni, but it is also dedicated to the memory of our great President, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, who, although never connected directly with the school, belonged to all of us.

Men from Mamaroneck High School have fought for the cause of freedom all over the world. Many have died; many are missing. This page of the Mahiscan is their memorial.
